ARCHBISHOP PÉREZ STATEMENT NATIONAL VOCATIONS AWARENESS WEEK

At the beginning of his public ministry, Jesus formed a group of twelve disciples who would follow him closely. He taught these men and prepared them to serve as the Church's first priests. Although their names and lives are familiar to us today, the Apostles did not begin their work with fanfare or acclaim. They were ordinary men invited by Jesus to participate in an extraordinary mission.

I ask all of you to reflect on the importance of priestly vocations to every facet of our local Church's mission. Fostering vocations to the priesthood must be a priority for all of us if we are to be effective in our proclamation of the Gospel today.

Fundamentally Christ calls men to his priesthood, but that calling is often expressed through human instruments. I am deeply grateful to those already working to promote a culture of vocations within the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, especially our priests, seminarians, families, teachers, catechists, and parish vocation committees. By helping our young parishioners and students listen to God's voice in their lives, you render an invaluable service to the Church.

I encourage any young man discerning a call to the priesthood to reach out to a parish priest or to the Vocation Office for the Diocesan Priesthood (www.heedthecall.org). I can testify that the priesthood is an immensely joyful and rewarding life for those to whom God has called out. May the Lord raise up humble servants to serve as holy priests in our Archdiocese!

SEMANA NACIONAL DE CONCIENTIZACIÓN SOBRE LAS VOCACIONES DECLARACIÓN DEL ARZOBISPO PÉREZ

Al comienzo de su ministerio público, Jesús formó un grupo de doce discípulos que lo seguirían de cerca. Enseñó a estos hombres y los preparó para servir como los primeros sacerdotes de la Iglesia. Aunque sus nombres y vidas nos son familiares hoy en día, los Apóstoles no comenzaron su trabajo con fanfarrias o aclamaciones. Eran hombres corrientes invitados por Jesús a participar en una misión extraordinaria.

Les pido a todos que reflexionen sobre la importancia de las vocaciones sacerdotales en todas las facetas de la misión de nuestra Iglesia local. Fomentar las vocaciones al sacerdocio debe ser una prioridad para todos nosotros si queremos ser eficaces en nuestro anuncio del Evangelio hoy.

Fundamentalmente, Cristo llama a los hombres a su sacerdocio, pero que ese llamado a menudo se expresa a través de instrumentos humanos. Estoy profundamente agradecido a quienes ya están trabajando para promover una cultura de vocaciones dentro de la Arquidiócesis de Filadelfia, especialmente a nuestros sacerdotes, seminaristas, familias, maestros, catequistas y comités de vocaciones parroquiales, en ayudando a nuestros jóvenes feligreses y estudiantes a escuchar la voz de Dios en sus vidas, usted brinda un servicio invaluable a la Iglesia.

Animo a cualquier joven que este discerniendo un llamado al sacerdocio a que se comunique con un párroco o con la Oficina de Vocaciones para el Sacerdocio Diocesano (www.heedthecall.org). Puedo testificar que el sacerdocio es una vida inmensamente gozosa y gratificante para aquellos a quienes Dios ha llamado. ¡Que el Señor levante siervos humildes para que sirvan como sacerdotes santos en nuestra Arquidiócesis!

WINNER SELECTED FOR “VIEW OF OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE CHURCH”

The Respect Life Ministry is very happy to announce that on October 31 Virginia Todd's ticket was picked by Monsignor Gentili to be the winner of "View of Our Lady of Guadalupe Church," the original oil painting of our church by parishioner Denise Callanan-Kline. Virginia expressed enthusiastic admiration of the painting and told us that her dear father was a special admirer of the beauty of our church, and so the painting holds special meaning for her family. The Respect Life Ministry is very grateful to all who bought tickets for this raffle, knowing that all proceeds will help to fund the 'Mary, Mother of the Life Within' statue for our Prayer Garden. All those who were kind enough to purchase two or more raffle tickets will be contacted soon, so we can arrange delivery of your giclée print of the painting.

Dear OLG Parishioners,

I would like to express my deep gratitude for your very generous donation to the Saint Katharine Drexel Food Pantry, which serves those in need within the Chester community. The total amount of food collected and brought down came to over 1,000 pounds and the clothing donations filled our clothing storage room to well over capacity! Judy King, our Food Pantry Director, and myself were overwhelmed by your generosity. Please know of my continued prayers for all of you!

Maureen Sapelli, Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish

Dear Maureen:

I want to thank your parish so much for the Food and Toiletries Drive on behalf of the Saint Katharine Drexel Food Pantry. The total amount of food collected and brought down was 1,668.2 pounds! Also, thank you for the two bags of clothing. They will be put out tomorrow for our clients. A big thank you to you who organized the drive and to all the volunteers who helped bring the food into the pantry. It was so nice getting to see you again and meet more of your parishioners.

Please be sure to share this letter with your parishioners and all those who helped yesterday. I'm looking forward to seeing you next week when you bring the donations of coats and clothes.

We are so grateful to your parish and will continue to keep you in your thoughts and prayers. We are really looking forward to continuing to work with you in the future.

Our most sincere thanks from myself and the dedicated volunteers of the St. Katharine Drexel Food Pantry and Clothing Cupboard.
