KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Grand Knight Bill Thanel

The Knights of Columbus is the largest Catholic men's lay organization in the world. It was founded by Michael McGivney in the late 1800s and has grown to nearly two million members worldwide. Our council, OLG Knights Council 15590, is proud to have 104 members.

The Knights are guided by four core principles: Charity, Unity, Fraternity, and Patriotism.

I used to think faith was something you practiced only in church. I found it difficult to talk about my faith—especially with those whose faith was being challenged by outside influences. Becoming a Knight of Columbus changed that. I came to understand that faith isn't something reserved for Sundays—it's something you live every day.

Being a Knight also encourages balance—between work, home life, and faith. It creates opportunities to spend meaningful time with your family and with like-minded men who are striving to grow spiritually.

The first time I volunteered for a Knights program, I saw firsthand how much good a group of faithful men can accomplish. It opened my eyes to the blessings in my own life—and the responsibility we have to share our time, talent, and treasure with others. I realized that while a donation helps, rolling up your sleeves and giving your time brings even greater rewards. Our council volunteers support parish ministries, including fundraising efforts like the Respect Life rummage sale, which benefited five pro-life organizations supporting women and their babies.

Our major fundraisers, the Golf Outing and Lenten Fellowship Dinner, help support many important causes, including:

- Doylestown Food Pantry/The Lord's Pantry, St. John's, Ottsville
- Least of Our Brothers, Global Wheelchair Mission, Humble Heroes, Travis Manion Foundation
- Vocation support toward priesthood
- Coats for Kids, Little Sisters of the Poor, Rachel's Vineyard, Baby's Breath
- The OLG Festival

We grow together spiritually by celebrating quarterly Masses, participating in semimonthly faith formation meetings, serving as Honor Guard at funeral services for our brother Knights and at The Relics of the Passion and Saints Alive events.

Our commitment is simple: we meet once a month for about an hour. Our meetings include prayer, the Pledge of Allegiance, updates from leadership, and discussions about upcoming events. There's also time for fellowship, prayer intentions, and welcoming guests.

In closing, I invite all men of OLG (18 and older) to join us. Become part of a brotherhood of Catholic men dedicated to strengthening our families, living our faith, serving others, and building up our parish. Contact Grand Knight Bill Thanel at Bill.thanel@icloud.com.
