SAFE HAVEN SUNDAY: EQUIPPING THE FAMILY, SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN

The Archdiocese of Philadelphia is setting aside this weekend, March 2 and 3, as Safe Haven Sunday in order to give focused time and resources to address the harmfulness of pornography and other online threats to marriages, family life and culture. Today's awareness day is celebrated through prayer and a reflection within the context of the Mass. After Mass, we will be distributing Covenant Eyes' book, Equipped: Smart

Catholic Parenting in a Sexualized Culture. This book includes a unique seven-day text-to-opt-in program: The Equipped 7-Day Challenge. This Challenge provides practical tips any caring adult can take to create safer digital environments for themselves and our young people. Thank you for celebrating with us! If you have any questions about this awareness weekend, please contact The Office for Life and Family or visit Phillycatholiclife.org.

Get your copy of Equipped after Mass this weekend.

This annual gathering seeks to demonstrate that faith has a place in the public arena and to foster a renewed commitment to missionary discipleship precisely through faithful citizenship.
