FROM THE PASTOR

ADVENT 2018

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In Advent, we give pause to reflect on this past year, which has been filled with much trauma, both inside and outside the Church. While recent events have caused great pain, it is within each of those most difficult periods of history that the Church has raised up some of her greatest Saints. Might the Lord be calling us in this important moment of our history?

At Our Lady of Guadalupe, you can be a part of a parish community that holds itself to accountability, transparency and action. We encourage you, now more than ever, to be a part of that light which is Jesus Christ and to be a part of our vibrant, welcoming parish family dedicated to growing disciples and making Church matter.

Please join us as you prepare your hearts and souls for the celebration of the birth of our Savior. Advent events are listed in the bulletin and on the parish website. Your prayers, presence and witness to the Faith along with your commitment to this parish family are so important to our vitality and making a difference in our Church.

Devotedly Yours in Christ Jesus,

Sincerely Yours in Our Lord
Rev. Monsignor Joseph P. Gentili

ARCHBISHOP CHAPUT'S COLUMN

CLEANSED AND CONFORMED TO GOD'S WILL: ADVENT 2018

I've written and spoken about the significance of Advent many times. But this year an articulate lay voice seems most appropriate to fill my column space. George Weigel is the biographer of St. John Paul II and Distinguished Senior Fellow of Washington, D.C.'s Ethics and Public Policy Center, where he holds the William E. Simon Chair in Catholic Studies. My thanks go to the author and to the Denver Catholic Register for permission to reprint Mr. Weigel's thoughts. ADVENT MESSAGE SERIES

In preparation for the celebration of Christmas, OLG will offer a message series focusing on "the four marks" of discipleship : urgency, humility, joy, and evangelization. Each week, the homilist will focus on one of these marks and inspire us to grow as disciples of Christ. Please see below the schedule for our upcoming message series:

Advent Series: "The Four Marks of Discipleship"

First Sunday of Advent: "Urgency"
Second Sunday of Advent: Humility"
Third Sunday of Advent: "Joy"
Fourth Sunday of Advent: "Evangelization"

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

How is joy apart of my life as a disciple of Christ?

What one thing did I get from the homily this Sunday?

What one thing will I do to be a joyful disciple of Christ?

GOOD NEWS FOR CROWDED CHURCHES

LET'S PREPARE FOR OUR CHRISTMAS VISITORS

Each week in Mass, we stand and greet those next to us in the pews as part of our parish mission to be a "welcoming parish family …". At Christmas, this is the time for everyone to welcome all friends, family and visitors to Our Lady of Guadalupe Church. There is going to be a lot of people sitting in the pews, filling up the parking lot and going to communion. Let's show them how happy we are to have them celebrating Christmas with us in our beautiful church. Let us all "slide over and make room for one more".

Read the following article that gives a nice perspective on welcoming our visitors. "Let's not make the mistake of every other innkeeper in Bethlehem, turning away a family no one believed could be holy, seeing only scarcity and inconvenience, unwilling and unable to welcome." Read Good News for Crowded Churches on the OLG Website:

Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish wants to continue to provide our parishioners with a fulfilling experience when they attend Mass and events at OLG. Our parish Pastoral Council and Finance Council are looking into several technology initiatives including: livestreaming, large viewing screens in the church, social media, website maintenance (Wix), videos and Spanish translation of Mass.

Do you have expertise in any of these areas? Do you have the experience and desire to lead a technology team at our parish? Interested volunteers should contact Teresa Fischer at olguadbulletin@gmail.com for more information.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

FEAST OF THE HOLY INNOCENTS MASS

December 28, 7 p.m., St. Cyril of Jerusalem Church

The Feast of the Holy Innocents is observed each December 28th to remember the children slaughtered by King Herod and his henchmen. This feast day holds a particular significance to the pro-life movement as we also remember all the innocent pre-born babies killed each and every day through the terrible sin of abortion. All are invited.

MARCH FOR LIFE

Friday, January 18, 2019, Washington, DC

Join us as we commemorate the 46th Anniversary of Roe v Wade, the Supreme Court decision legalizing abortion in our nation. The bus will leave the OLMC parking lot at 7 a.m. We will attend the rally at 12 noon then begin the March. We will board our bus no later than 4 p.m. and will be driven to the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception for a meal or to tour the church. There is an opportunity for those who cannot march to spend their day at the Basilica. However, you will need to get a cab from Union Station to the Basilica. There is no charge for a seat, (donations accepted) however, you must register. Reserve a seat by calling Kathy at 215-348-4381. When you register, leave your email and cell phone number.

HEALTH AND WELLNESS MINISTRY

Questions? Contact Maureen Sapelli at 215-794-5764 or maureenm23@gmail.com.

NURSING HOME MINISTRY

Members of the Health and Wellness ministry visit the New Horizons Nursing Home every other Wednesday from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. They do crafts, have a snack and interact with the residents. The ministry is looking for more people so the residents can have more one on one time. This is a very satisfying ministry as the residents are so eager for personal interaction. If you can help, please contact Maureen Sapelli

WARMTH AND COMFORT FOR YOU, A FRIEND OR FAMILY MEMBER

The members of the Prayer Shawl Ministry at OLG make prayer shawls which are made with love and prayers. They are given freely to anyone who wants one. The shawls are usually given to people who are ill, grieving, old, cold, or want to pray with one on. The shawls are blessed by our priests. If you would like a shawl or you know anyone who would like one, please contact Maureen Sapelli.

ABOUNDING IN JOY AT THE WOMEN'S ADVENT BREAKFAST

The 2nd Annual OLG Women's Advent Breakfast was held on Saturday, December 1 at the Doylestown Country Club. Approximately, 210 women from OLG and neighboring parishes enjoyed a wonderful morning of fellowship, good food and time to reflect on the season of Advent. Meghan Cokeley, Director of the Office for New Evangelization for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, provided an inspiring talk and encouraged attendees to be "women abounding in joy" to help prepare for Christmas. The morning was organized by a committee of representatives from various OLG ministries.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

ADVENT – PREPARE THE WAY SESSION 4

It's easy to lose sight of the real story of the Magi amidst the figurines, the television renditions, and the carols about the three "oriental kings." This study looks at the biblical account and gives a proper context for a truly meaningful celebration of joy through sacrificial giving.

Wednesday, December 19
10 a.m., Parish Life Center

For questions or to register, contact Jessica Walters 267-247-5374 x 3 or jwalters@olguadalupe.org

WHY IS THE THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT KNOWN AS GAUDETE SUNDAY?

Its name is taken from the entrance antiphon of the Mass, which is: "Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice. Indeed, the Lord is near." This is a quotation from Philippians 4:4-5, and in Latin, the first word of the antiphon is gaudete (Latin, "rejoice"; it's also pronounced with three syllables: gau-de-te)

Advent is the season of preparing for the arrival of the Lord Jesus (both his first coming and his second coming), and by the third Sunday of Advent, we are most of the way through the season. Thus it is appropriate to rejoice as we see the goal of the season approaching: "The Lord is near."
