FROM THE PASTOR

Dearly Beloved Brothers and Sisters,

Welcome to Our Lady of Guadalupe Church!

Please join us this Lent and be a part of a parish community that holds itself to accountability, transparency and action. The Passion of Christ was the definitive act in the life of our Lord while here on earth. His strength in suffering is a model to us. Just as the sacrifices of Lent pave the way to Easter, so too our strengths are born of our suffering. Keep Christ in mind this Lent as you endure inconveniences, annoyances and sufferings.

This year we invite you to enter into the Paschal Mystery of Jesus Christ, by commemorating His Passion, Death and Resurrection. To that end we, along with your fellow parishioners, encourage you to take advantage of the many opportunities that will be afforded to you here at the parish so that you too can be a part of a vibrant, welcoming parish family dedicated to growing disciples and making Church matter. Take the opportunity during Lent and Easter to renew and refresh your relationship with the Lord. We look forward to seeing you!

Devotedly Yours in Christ Jesus,

Reverend Monsignor Joseph P. Gentili

SAFE HAVEN SUNDAY, THANK YOU!

March 2019

Dear Clergy, Diocesan and Parish Staff,

I am writing to thank you for your help with the implementation of Safe Haven Sunday.

Your commitment to bringing awareness to the harmfulness of pornography, while at the same time equipping marriages and families with the tools they need to restore their homes as safe havens is appreciated and supported greatly by me and the archdiocese as a whole.

I trust we will experience great fruit from Safe Haven Sunday. I will look forward to hearing from you regarding your experience of this great effort.

Again, my sincerest thanks! Please be assured that I hold your and your ministries in my daily prayer.

With gratitude and prayerful best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M., Cap.
Archbishop of Philadelphia

MESSAGE SERIES

In preparation for the celebration of Easter, OLG offers a message series focusing on spiritual growth. Each week, the homilist will focus on one area of spiritual growth and inspire us to grow as disciples of Christ. Please see below the schedule for our upcoming message series:

SPIRITUAL GROWTH

- 1st Sunday of Lent: Overcoming Temptation
- 2nd Sunday of Lent: Transformation in Christ
- 3rd Sunday of Lent: Spiritual Fruitfulness
- 4th Sunday of Lent: Receiving Mercy
- 5th Sunday of Lent: Showing Mercy

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

How have I been transformed in Christ?

What one thing did I get from the homily this Sunday?

What one thing will I do to allow Christ to transform me?

2020 MASS BOOK OPEN

The 2020 Book for Mass Intentions is now open. All Mass, OLG shrine and altar candle intentions have a suggested $15 donation. Visit the parish office to request your Mass and shrine intentions.

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

Genesis 15, 5-12. 17-18—Abraham put his faith in the Lord.

Psalms 27, 1. 7-8. 8-9. 13-14—The Lord is my light and my salvation.

Philippians 3, 17-4—Christ will transfigure these wretched bodies of ours into copies of his glorious body.

Luke 9, 28-36—Abram's faith is sealed with a covenant initiated by God. The transfiguration of Jesus prefigures the transformation in glory to which we are called by our sharing in the paschal mystery—the dying and rising of Jesus.

BULLETIN DEADLINE

Email olguadbulletin@gmail.com to submit a request or call the parish office. The bulletin deadline is the previous Monday at 12 noon. We would love to hear from you!

RCIA SPONSOR TESTIMONIAL

RCIA Candidate
Samantha Whitesell

Sponsor
Timothy W. Cathers, Jr.

I am Timothy W. Cathers Jr., and I am an active member of Our Lady of Guadalupe. I am heavily involved in the parish as a Fourth Degree Knight in the Knights of Columbus, founder and former Chief Squire of Our Lady of Guadalupe's Columbian Squires Circle, an usher, and former altar server. I am sponsoring Samantha S. Whitesell in the parish's RCIA program. I firmly believe Samantha is entirely prepared to be presented to the Archbishop at the Cathedral Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul, proceed through the period of Purification and Enlightenment, and ultimately come into full communion with us at the Easter Vigil. Samantha is a fully-devoted candidate who will make a fully-devoted Catholic. I wholeheartedly believe that Samantha is a candidate whom exemplifies the traits of a devoted Catholic as she remains strong, determined, and faithful on her path to conversion, despite the bumps and obstacles that try to veer her off her path. Words will never describe how proud I am of Samantha, the Catholic she will become, and the Catholic she will forever be.

LETTER FROM THE NEW DIRECTOR OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

To the OLG Parish Family,

While I've only been here a few short weeks as your Director of Religious Education, I can already see very clearly what a dynamic, faithful, and generous people you are. It is a real joy to work here. Thank you for welcoming me and for your faithfulness to the Church!

Along with building on all of the great programs already in place, I am already at work drafting new 7th and 8th grade PREP curricula. I thought it might be good to offer a brief indication of what I am all about and how I see my task going forward. The following selection, provided by the Pontifical John Paul II Institute, does just that:

"It is common in our age to think of education as a means to some further end. Whether we take it to be the acquisition of knowledge and skills for a particular career, or preparation for some sort of ministry or simply to be a "productive member of society," we tend to make education essentially a stage in our development, through which we pass on the way to something else. But this way of seeing things fails to do justice to the reality. However fruitful we can expect a real education to be, we deeply misunderstand its nature if we make it a mere instrument. Education is first of all a thing worth pursuing for its own sake. For the ancient Greeks, in fact, education was not only an intrinsic good, it was one of the very highest, a good to which society itself is subordinate. . . For Christians, who believe that "the glory of God is the living man," the task of cultivating humanity is inseparable from the call to love God and love our neighbor as ourselves. Education, properly understood, lies right at the center of the Christian mission. (...)

Thus understood, education is not in the first place a program to be carried out, or a problem to be solved. Rather, it is a basic human activity. This activity is first of all and most essentially contemplative; it is an endeavor to understand and affirm the meaning of things, prior to any projects or plans we might hope to achieve. At the same time, genuine Christian contemplation always bears fruit in action. This is because the mind cannot be separated from the soul, any more than the soul can be separated from the body. Moreover, deep knowledge cannot be separated from love, nor love from knowledge. To come to understand, then, entails an entry into knowledge along with a formation of the soul, an ordering of desires, and a deepening of our love. An education is thus the planting of the seeds of a form of life."

It is my pleasure to serve this community in the capacity given to me. I ask for your prayers as I promise to keep you in mine. My office is open to all, and I look forward to building up our parish community together. Yours in Christ,

Daniel A. Drain
