FROM THE PASTOR

In his most recent column Archbishop Chaput writes about the annual conference for women. Through this conference, women of the Archdiocese are invited to an extraordinary experience of renewing their faith and rediscovering their personal dignity, especially the astonishing fact that each person is uniquely known, loved and called by God for a particular purpose. And this purpose is 'unrepeatable,' which means that each and every individual woman, and she alone, is tasked with it, and that no one else will ever exist who can replicate her mission. Registration information below.

SEMINARIANS STOP AT OLG DURING BIKING FOR VOCATIONS

On Sunday, August 11 seminarians from the Archdiocese of Philadelphia stopped at Our Lady of Guadalupe during their four-day, 150-mile biking pilgrimage throughout the archdiocese to bring awareness of vocations.

Clergy and parishioners greeted the seminarians and their support team with enthusiastic cheers and ringing cow bells. During their visit, the seminarians enjoyed lunch in the Parish Life Center and shared their vocations stories. Parishioners and members of the OLG Youth Ministry were encouraged to ask questions and learn more about life in the seminary.

THE TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jeremiah 38, 4-6. 8-10—You bore me to be a man of strife for the whole world.

Psalms 40, 2. 3. 4. 18—Lord, come to my aid!

Hebrews 12, 1-4—Let us bear patiently the struggle placed upon us.

Luke 12, 49-53 —The Lord came to the aid of Jeremiah whose preaching brought upon him rejection and ill treatment. For those who take the gospel seriously, misunderstanding and division most likewise be expected. Like Christ, we must never grow dependent or abandon the struggle to proclaim and live the truth.

Among the many historical connections to Jesus and Christianity, the study will reveal how we can enter more deeply into relationship with Christ, how Christ's death changed our relationship with God, what Paul means by "works" not leading to Salvation, and the ways in which Jesus is fulfillment of Israel's prophecies, which leads to the universal "Catholic" family of God. The study will include DVD, workbook and group discussion.

THE RELICS AT OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE CHURCH

It has been a long-standing tradition of the Catholic Church to place a relic from one of the saints in a niche carved out of the top of the altar. Here at Our Lady of Guadalupe we have relics from quite a few Saints. Most recently, first class relics from Saint John of Matha and Saint Felix of Valois, co-founders of the Trinitarian Order, have been placed in a niche at the Our Lady of Guadalupe Shrine. To read more about the relics at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church see "Monsignor's Articles" on the parish website. www.olguadalupe.org/monsignorreports
