TESTIMONIAL FROM PARISHIONER WHO COMPLETED RCIA IN 2021

I wanted to share my personal experience with RCIA for anyone considering joining this year. Although I was raised without formal religion, I felt called to the great love of Christ and knew Him to be the pillar of my personal salvation. When many attempts to access faith through various Christian religious denominations failed, a pervasive sense of spiritual emptiness and isolation persisted, even after marrying a Catholic man and raising my children in the church. Every Easter, I would feel disappointment in myself and acknowledge the missed opportunity for conversion. Familial, professional, and personal obligations were excuses that held me back from taking time for myself and pursuing the RCIA program. The encouragement, and sponsorship of my dear friend, Cecelia, gave me the final push I needed to commit to the process. I am exceedingly grateful to OLG and the team of dedicated RCIA volunteers. I was fortunate to receive all of my sacraments in one night, from baptism to the convalidation of my 21 year marriage. I rejoice in the blessings God has given me and view my challenges as an opportunity for growth in character and faith. It is with deep thanksgiving to the OLG family that I send my most sincere gratitude for this experience. I look forward to many years of faith and fellowship with all of you.

Junior High Youth Ministry

Students in 7th and 8th Grade (also some 9th Graders)

Meet Every Sunday, 4:30 to 6:30 p.m.

Fun, fun and more fun! Junior High is one of the toughest times of a teen’s life since they are transitioning into a different school and facing all types of new pressures to fit in. At our meetings, we hang out for a while, hear God’s Word and discuss what it means to be “Catholic.” Friendships are born here and flourish for many years. Our youth room is second to none and the best place to be on a Sunday.

High School Youth Ministry

Students in 9th through 12th Grades

Meet Every Sunday, 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Friendships are crucial in high school. Being accepted, seen, heard and needed is vital to every person, especially in high school. We ask students to step out in faith and develop a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. We provide many opportunities to encounter Him during the year. We discuss moral and faith issues that students struggle with. We encourage sharing and have small group discussions.

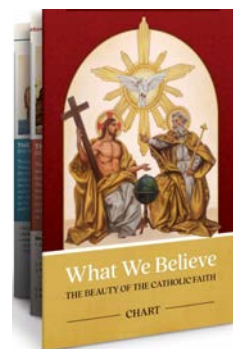

YOUNG ADULT MINISTRY BIBLE STUDY

Tuesday Evenings, 7:30 to 9 p.m.

2nd Floor, Parish Life Center

We warmly welcome new members to our church and young adult community. We aim to help you gain a better understanding of your faith and how to overcome some of the challenges that come with living as a Catholic in today’s world. We will also have social and service events and opportunities for adoration.

This is a very chill group of young people who like to hang out, laugh, share and learn just how amazing our faith is. For more information contact Lisa Kopertowski at 267-337-2822 or youthministry@olguadalupe.org
