FROM THE PASTOR

ARCHBISHOP CHAPUT COLUMN

GILROY, EL PASO, DAYTON – AND COLUMBINE

Exactly 20 years ago, in U.S. Senate testimony just weeks after the Columbine H. S. massacre, I offered these thoughts: The real problem is in here, in us ... In the last four decades we've created a culture that markets violence in dozens of different ways, seven days a week. When we build our advertising campaigns on consumer selfishness and greed, and when money becomes the universal measure of value, how can we be surprised when our sense of community erodes? When we glorify and multiply guns, why are we shocked when kids use them?

When we answer murder with more violence in the death penalty, we put the state's seal of approval on revenge. When the most dangerous place in the country is a mother's womb and the unborn child can have his or her head crushed in an abortion, the body language of that message is that life isn't sacred and may not be worth much at all. In fact, certain kinds of killing no longer even count officially as "killing." Certain kinds of killing we enshrine as rights and protect by law. When we live this kind of contradiction, why are we surprised at the results?

The Columbine murders will mark my [Denver] community for years to come. We live in the most violent century in history. Nothing makes us immune from that violence except a relentless commitment to respect the sanctity of each human life, from womb to natural death. The civility and community we've built in this country are fragile. We're losing them. In examining how and why our culture markets violence, I ask you not to stop with the symptoms. Look deeper. The families in Littleton and throughout the country deserve at least that much.

In separate incidents over the past two weeks, gunmen have killed three persons and wounded 13 others in Gilroy, CA; killed at least 20 and wounded 26 others in El Paso TX; and killed at least nine and wounded 27 others in Dayton, OH. These are just the latest in a long pattern of mass shootings.

Now begins the usual aftermath: expressions of shock; hand-wringing about senseless (or racist, or religious, or political) violence; bitter arguments about gun control; heated editorials, earnest (but brief) self-searching of the national soul, and eventually — we're on to the next crisis.

I buried some of the young Columbine victims 20 years ago. The experience taught me that assault rifles are not a birthright, and the Second Amendment is not a Golden Calf. I support thorough background checks and more restrictive access to guns for anyone seeking to purchase them.

But it also taught me that only a fool can believe that "gun control" will solve the problem of mass violence. The people using the guns in these loathsome incidents are moral agents with twisted hearts. The twisting is done by the culture of sexual anarchy, personal excess, political hatreds, intellectual dishonesty, and perverted freedoms that we've created over the past half-century.

So I'll say it again, 20 years later. Treating the symptoms in a culture of violence doesn't work. We need to look deeper. Until we're willing to do that, nothing fundamental will change.

FROM THE PASTOR

ST. JUAN DIEGO CHAPEL NEW STAINED GLASS WINDOWS DEDICATED

This past week the two new stained glass windows in the St. Juan Diego Chapel at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church were dedicated during a private Mass. It may interest you to know that both windows were completely paid for by an anonymous donor.

The Our Lady Queen of the Angels stained glass window was a gift in honor of our parish founding pastor, Reverend Joseph J. Quindlen. The title of "Our Lady Queen of Angels" refers to Mary's place of honor with her Son in the Kingdom of Heaven where Christ is King and Mary is Queen Mother. It is a place of honor because she is placed over the wonderful creatures of God called angels who serve as God's messengers and as guardians for individuals.

This donor also donated the second stained glass window, The Descent of the Holy Spirit upon Mary and the Apostles, in honor of your current pastor and I am most grateful. The gift of Holy Spirit is depicted by a Dove in the center window being released from the open hands of the Ascending Jesus and overlooked by the Father, creator of heaven and earth.

I am deeply grateful for their commitment to our parish and dedication to the Catholic Faith. I am confident that these windows will be a source of spiritual inspiration and motivation for all those who gaze upon them.

An explanation of the both windows is found on the website. Please feel free to peruse the windows in the chapel at your leisure. I trust you will find them awe-inspiring to contemplate.

Who is eligible for LIFE St. Mary?
• Age 55 or older
• Live in the Life Service area
• Need the level of care that requires nursing facility-type services
• Can live safely in the community with the services provided through LIFE St. Mary
