FROM THE PASTOR

BLACK HISTORY MONTH AND THE PRO-LIFE MOVEMENT

2020 was an inflection point in the national conversation about race in America. As nationwide unrest boiled over, tensions became higher, divisions became deeper, and the conversation became more difficult.

For the pro-life movement, it became difficult to determine how to respond to the issues facing the country. Should we stay focused on abortion issues, or do we enter into the conversation? Do we even have a place or a voice in these issues?

That's why Human Coalition Action created a NEW webpage as a reference guide for why the pro-life movement has such an important voice in these issues:

www.hucoaction.org/race-in-america.

Ultimately, we are told in Proverbs 31:8 that we are to “Speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves, for the rights of all who are destitute.” That means we have a responsibility to speak up for the dignity of all human life.

WHAT MAKES FOR A GOOD HOMILY?

Your insights on this question are sought through a national study partially funded by a grant from the Confraternity of Christian Faith of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and the Catholic Biblical Association. This effort, called the Parables Project, is focusing on the preaching of Jesus' parables. Please help us gain new insights by completing the 15 minute survey at www.parablesproject.org.

The study results will be shared widely, but a special report will be shared with our seminary. It will provide insights into how parishioners understand the parables, which will undoubtedly help in crafting homilies on these provocative stories used by Jesus to proclaim the Kingdom of God. We look forward to communicating the report's results with you in the future.

Questions? Comments? Feel free to reach out to the research team at parablesproject@shsst.edu.

LA FE ES UNA CONSTANTE

Para alguien no familiarizado con Jesús o el Evangelio, esta historia de la conversación de Jesús con una mujer samaritana pudiera parecer una simple anécdota sobre un extraño que le pide un favor a otro en un lugar público. Sin embargo, las personas que vivieron en tiempos bíblicos habrían notado muchos detalles en la historia que sugiere un significado a un nivel más profundo. Habrían sabido que las mujeres de esa época no solo no hablaban con hombres extraños, sino que los samaritanos y los judíos no tenían nada que ver entre sí. Lo hubieran comprendido como la descripción de lo que a menudo se le llama una conversación difícil.

Hay muchas clases de conversaciones difíciles. Algunas tratan de noticias tristes, algunas son propuestas para restaurar relaciones tensas, algunas son súplicas de ayuda, y algunas son tentativas altruistas para crear nuevas relaciones. A menudo las personas las evitan o las retrasan debido a que pueden ser incómodas. Sin embargo, cuanto más participas en conversaciones difíciles, más te das cuenta de lo importantes que son.

Para la mujer del pozo, fue la conversación más importante que jamás haya tenido. Cambió su comprensión de sí misma y su actitud hacia las personas que siempre había evitado. También cambió su comprensión del deseo de Dios de que todas las personas nos valoremos y nos aceptemos unas a otras. El incómodo encuentro entre dos personas se convirtió en una invitación urgente a que todo el pueblo se uniera a la conversación; a ver sus vidas de una manera nueva y, contarles a más personas todo sobre ella.

HONOR YOUR LOVED ONES OR SPECIAL INTENTION WITH THE GIFT OF EASTER FLOWERS

Each Easter, our church and parish campus is filled with gorgeous flowers and trees. This beautiful greenery is made possible through memorial donations from generous parishioners. When parishioners donate toward Easter flowers they are able to honor a loved one or remember a special intention. These intentions are placed in the sanctuary and are remembered in a special way throughout the Easter season.

If you would like to memorialize your loved ones or recognize your special intention in this significant way, please use the Easter Flowers envelope (which is included with your weekly offering envelopes) or donate online through Parish Giving. Please call the parish office if you need assistance.

In addition, these donations partially defray the cost of keeping the St. Francis Courtyard and the church entranceway looking festive during the spring and summer.

You may be interested to know that the Christmas Flower Offering, the Father's Day Remembrance and the Mother's Day Remembrance are also used in this way. All of these intentions are placed in the sanctuary and are prayed for specifically during the month or season of the event.

Thank you to all our parishioners who honor their intentions in such a beautiful way that makes our Easter Masses even more amazing. www.olguadalupe.org/give

RCIA SPONSOR TESTIMONIALS

Emily Sharkey, Catechumen

I am Brian Sharkey and a member of this parish. I am sponsoring my wife, Emily Sharkey. She is ready to proceed through the period of Purification and Enlightenment, and come into full communion with us at the Easter Vigil. Emily, a lifelong Christian, felt a calling to join the Catholic church in the hopes of strengthening her relationship with Christ and enriching our faith as a married couple. It has been a blessing to walk through the RCIA process with her. I am overjoyed to stand by her side this Easter and welcome Emily to the Catholic faith.

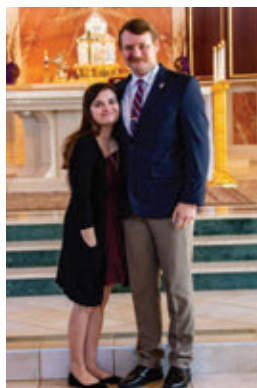

Stephanie Christie, Catechumen

My name is Rich Christie and I am a member of OLG. I am sponsoring my beautiful wife, Stephanie Christie! Stephanie is ready to proceed through the period of Purification and Enlightenment and to come into full communion with us at the Easter Vigil. Stephanie is ready for this day because she knows and loves the lord and she has been proactive and engaged during this journey. Our family is so happy and proud! Love you!

Marcus L. White, Catechumen

I am Amanda Helmuth and a member of this parish. I am sponsoring Marcus Lind White. He is ready to proceed through the period of Purification and Enlightenment and to come in full communion with us at the Easter Vigil. He is ready because he has always loved and knew Jesus as our Savior for many years, it wasn't until recently that he got the chance to get baptized and confirmed. He will be an amazing disciple of Christ once he is done with RICA and his sacraments, and would just love to help mentor those in deciding to become Catholic since it is his life mission be one like Christ and Catholic.
