FROM THE PASTOR

WELCOME DEACON HOUSE

Dear Our Lady of Guadalupe Family,

I am excited to begin a six-month parish internship as a permanent diaconate candidate. This is my fourth of six years in the School of Diaconate Formation at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary. Earlier this month, I was instituted to the ministry of lector in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

My wife Lisa and I have been parishioners at St. Martin of Tours in New Hope since 1999. We have been married for over 35 years and raised five children in Solebury Township. We love to spend time with our five granddaughters and three grandsons, who fondly call us Grandma and Grandude.

Diaconate candidacy involves discerning a call to service. It has been a blessing to facilitate activities from parish men and bereavement ministries to youth backpacking in New Mexico. My role as a district executive for Washington Crossing Council serves over 1,000 scouts in lower Bucks County.

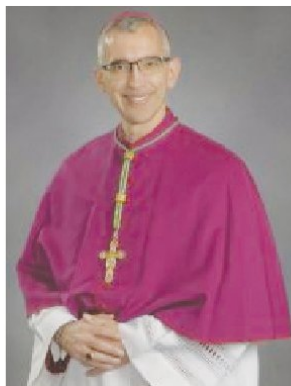

I thank Monsignor Gentili and the OLG family for the opportunity to continue to grow through ministry.

With deepest gratitude,

Greg House
