FROM THE PASTOR

UPDATE ON OLG SAFETY AND SECURITY-RECENT HATE CRIME

Catholics in the United States, particularly in the Philadelphia area, are no strangers to struggle and challenges to the public profession of their Faith. In 1844, the “Nativist Riots” took place in Philadelphia, during which two Catholic churches, St. Michael and St. Augustine, were burned down by an anti-Catholic mob.

However, as a testament to the perseverance in faith of our Catholic forebearers, these two churches were rebuilt and still stand to this day. While it is a sad chapter in our Nation’s history, the resiliency of Catholics in our area bears witness that faith and love triumph over ignorance and hate.

Sadly, that ignorance and hate is present in our own community as a new wave of hate crimes were committed on the Our Lady of Guadalupe church property during the past few weeks. Two weeks ago, our Rite of Christian Initiation sign displayed at the Durham Road entrance was torn down. Also, I have come to learn in cooperation with the police that sometime on Saturday evening, October 12, 40 of the 61 crosses commemorating the millions of unborn lives lost to abortion since the 1973 U.S. Supreme Court decision Roe v. Wade were taken out of the ground, broken, and stacked in two piles. In addition, two signs reading, “Stop surgical abortions,” were stolen.

I have reported this incident, along with the others that have happened on our property over the years, to the Buckingham Police. The members of the police department have been most supportive and concerned about these serious, deliberate and intentional acts of vandalism. It is being filed, like the last one you may recall, as a hate crime, in addition to trespassing and destruction of property. I can assure you that should the perpetrator(s) be caught, they will be held accountable to the fullest extent of the law.

In the meantime, I encourage you to be vigilant and to pray for the one (s) responsible for committing this heinous hate crime. Pray for a conversion of heart and reconciliation. For your information, the display is going back up as soon as possible and will be displayed until the end of the month, as we have done for the last several years, thus exercising our four freedoms, which President Franklin Delano Roosevelt proclaimed in his State of the Union Address in January of 1941, freedom of religion, of speech, from fear and from want.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us!
Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle!

THE TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Exodus 17, 8-13—As long as Moses kept his arms raised, Israel had the advantage.

Psalms 121, 1-2. 3-4. 5-6. 7-8—Our help is from the Lord who made heaven and earth.

2 Timothy 3, 14-4. 2—This is how the man of God becomes equipped and ready for every good work.

Luke 18, 1-8—Through incessant prayer, we open ourselves more fully to understanding God's will. Through faith in the power of prayer, we experience God's love and assistance. Our Christian life is nourished by the scriptures we read and by our received tradition.

WHAT EVERY CATHOLIC SHOULD KNOW ABOUT THE EUCHARIST

Father Dwight Longenecker
1 August, 2019

What does the Catechism of the Catholic Church teach?
It teaches that it is by the conversion of the bread and wine into Christ's Body and Blood that Christ becomes present in this sacrament.

What did the first Christians believe?

St Ambrose (340-397) writes: "Be convinced that ... the power of the blessing prevails over that of nature, because by the blessing nature itself is changed ... Could not Christ's word, which can make from nothing what did not exist, change existing things into what they were not before? It is no less a feat to give things their original nature than to change their nature."

ENTERING ENEMY TERRITORY: DISMANTLING THE CULTURE OF DEATH ON A COLLEGE CAMPUS

By Karly Brown, Temple University Student, OLG Parishioner

As I travel daily into the heart of Temple University's campus, it is evident that we are drowning in the culture of death—a culture that is saturated in isolation, selfishness, and a disrespect for the beauty and dignity of the human person.

There is a great battle to be won on college campuses across the nation, especially with regard to pro-life issues. But who is going to fight? Who will be the ones to reveal the joy and peace of the Gospel of Life? According to one of the most famous figures in history, one of the greatest saints of our time, John Paul II, it is going to be the young people. This man reminds me, as a young woman, of the gentle words of the Good Shepherd in John's Gospel: "The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly." (John 10:10)

As I ponder the words of Jesus and consider what this "abundant life" truly is, I am moved to act. I am moved to consider all of the things of the world, and on our campus, that keep us from this abundant life. I am moved to fight primarily against the effects of abortion on our culture, especially among college kids. I am irate that the joy, vibrancy, and hope of the young person is being stolen away by a culture that offers nothing but a false freedom and a litany of lies about how to attain happiness. Such motivations have led my friends and I to lead a Students for Life of America chapter on campus, engage in 40 Days for Life outreach, and visit Philadelphia's abortion clinics on a weekly basis. This is what Jesus has called us young people to do, and although the task is daunting at times, we are all filled with an incredible joy and peace because we know that this is something we have been personally invited to do.

It is safe to say that this work is not popular around campus. It is pretty unpopular, in fact, to stand in front of a Students for Life outreach display that exposes the atrocities of Planned Parenthood. It is pretty unpopular to pray outside of an abortion clinic and offer women alternative options. It is pretty unpopular to speak out against the harmful effects of abortion on women, children, and men alike.

But we do not care. We have been given special graces from God to lead us in restoring and rebuilding the culture of life in the lives of young people. Read the entire article here:

PARISH MINISTRIES

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

MARY, MOTHER OF THE LIFE WITHIN PRESENTATION

Sunday, November 17
1 p.m., Parish Life Center

The Respect Life Ministry invites everyone in the parish to help them welcome internationally renowned illustrator, sculptor, and author Joe DeVito for a presentation in the Parish Life Center. Joe will speak about the statue that the Respect Life Ministry would like to have sculpted and placed in the St. Francis Courtyard, Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish.

This statue will have a prominent spot in the prayer garden so that those who have lost a child through miscarriage, abortion or stillbirth can have a place to pray and reflect. It will also be a place where mothers-to-be can pray for the child they are carrying. Please join us and find out about opportunities for you to help us obtain our goal and have this statue commissioned. Light refreshments will be served.

MARCH FOR LIFE IN WARMINSTER

40 DAYS FOR LIFE CLOSING EVENT

Saturday, November 2
12 p.m., Nativity of Our Lord Church, Street Rd., Warminster

The Bucks County Pro-Life Coalition invites everyone to a March for Life that will begin at Nativity and end at Planned Parenthood, Louis Drive. This will be a public witness to the community as we walk silently along Street Road in prayer. For more information, contact Pat at 267-629-9471. Signs will be provided for this event.

CREMATION SHOULD NOT BE OUTSOURCED
Most funeral homes use a third-party crematory. Varcoe-Thomas assures every step of care for your loved one is managed within our private facility. If you choose cremation, let our family care for your family.
